

Complaints that can also occur with brain injury	Combination of complaints that are not normal with brain injury PAY ATTENTION!	Think of a deficiency of this type of hormone concentration disorders, attention disorders, fatigue, dizziness, nausea, depressed feeling	vomiting, no appetite, weight loss, fever, pale skin, fainting due to very low blood pressure	ACTH (adrenocortical hormone) tiredness, slow thinking, depressive feelings	hair loss, hoarseness, constipation, dry skin, inability to tolerate cold	TSH (thyroid hormone) attention disorders, memory problems, depressive complaints, decrease in quality of life	weakness, decrease in muscle mass, fat accumulation	GH (growth hormone) infertility, irregular menstruation, absence of menstruation, libido disorders, potency disorders	Gonadotropins (seks hormones)
	urinating too much, severe thirst	ADH (antidiuretic hormone, vasopressin)